

SATURDAY MORNING LECTURES

FALL 2022

October 15—UBC ESB Room 2012

- 10 a.m. Studying galaxies in the early Universe with the James Webb Space Telescope
by Ryley Hill—UBC
- 11:10 a.m. What should we care about quantum technologies?
by Dr. Hoi-Kwan (Kero) Lau—SFU

November 19—UBC ESB Room 2012

- 10 a.m. From the South Pole to the Edge of the Universe and back to the Coast of British Columbia
by Matthias Danninger—SFU
- 11:10 a.m. Little-known ways to apply nuclear physics to chemistry and medicine
by Monika Stachura—TRIUMF

November 5—SFU Surrey Central Room 2740

- 10 a.m. From the South Pole to the Edge of the Universe and back to the Coast of British Columbia
by Matthias Danninger—SFU
- 11:10 a.m. Little-known ways to apply nuclear physics to chemistry and medicine
by Monika Stachura—TRIUMF

December 3—SFU Surrey Central Room 2740

- 10 a.m. Studying galaxies in the early Universe with the James Webb Space Telescope
by Ryley Hill—UBC
- 11:10 a.m. Building the Quantum Internet
by Daniel Higginbottom

Sponsored by

See more details and register for free tickets at www.triumf.ca/saturday-lectures
Connect with us @TRIUMFLab

